The United States hereby moves the Court for an order permitting it to obtain a copy of the sealed Presentence Investigation Reports (PSR) pertaining to defendants Sheila Wu, Radu Tomescu, Leng S. Kouch, and Adnan Torlak filed in case number CR 02-40082 SBA. The United States further requests permission to provide copies of those PSRs to counsel for defendants Chaudhry and Kahn for the limited purpose of using those documents at the upcoming trial in this case. The United States anticipates that it may call Wu, Tomescu, Kouch, and/or Torlak as witnesses to testify against Chaudhry and Kahn at trial. Because the PSRs contain information that may be used to impeach those witnesses, as well as statements made by

1 those witnesses that may be pertinent to the case against Chaudhry and Kahn, the United States
2 believes that copies of the PSRs should be made available as discovery to the defense under 3 Brady v. Maryland, Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16, and the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. §
4 3500, et seq. Because the PSRs contain material related to the private and personal matters of 5 the witnesses, the United States requests that counsel for defendants Chaudhry and Kahn be 6 ordered to maintain the PSRs in confidence and not to publicly disclose the PSRs or any of the 7 information contained in them, except as necessary to prepare for and conduct the trial in this 8 matter.

9 The United States further requests that it be permitted to obtain a copy of the Judgement
10 and Commitment Order (J&C) for Sheila Wu in case number CR 02-40082 SBA which has been 11 placed under seal and to disclose that order to the defense in this matter. Sheila Wu's sentence
12 was reduced in part based on her cooperation in this matter. Therefore, the J&C, which reflects 13 the reduction in Ms. Wu's sentence, may be used to impeach her testimony at trial and should be 14 disclosed to the defense. Because the J&C contains sensitive information regarding Ms. Wu's 15 sentence, the United States requests that counsel for defendants Chaudhry and Kahn be ordered 16 to maintain the J&C in confidence and not to publicly disclose the J&C or any of the information 17 contained in it, except as necessary to prepare for and conduct the trial in this matter.

18 Finally, the United States requests permission under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure
19 6(e)(3)(E)(i) to disclose transcripts of the grand jury testimony of Anthony Armentano on May 20 13, 2004, and June 24, 2004, Connie Militano (formerly Connie Leung) on October 23, 2003, 21 and September 9, 2004, and Radu Tomescu on March 18, 2004. These three individuals may be 22 witnesses at the upcoming trial, and their grand jury testimony may constitute prior statements
23 under the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500, et seq. Because the grand jury transcripts contain 24 material related to grand jury proceedings, the United States requests that counsel for defendants 25 Chaudhry and Kahn be ordered to maintain the transcripts in confidence and not to publicly disclose the transcripts or any of the information contained in them, except as necessary to prepare for and conduct the trial in this matter.
